

Elena's Biography

Elena lives with her family in Auckland and has been writing for children since 2004. She has had a number of stories, poems, plays and readers published by educational publishers in New Zealand, Australia and the United States. Two of her stories (a picture book and an illustrated fiction text) are being published by Walker Books Australia and she is currently writing a fantasy novel for 10-12 year olds.

Educational qualifications include a BA from The University of Auckland (English) and a post graduate Diploma in Librarianship from Victoria University. Elena worked for seven years as an information consultant for the National Library's business information service.

Currently, as the 2010/2011 recipient of the Todd New Writers' Bursary, Elena is working on a collection of children's poems.

She is a member of Storylines, The NZ Society of Authors, Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators, and Kiwi Write4Kidz ...

Elena once worked her passage to Europe on a container ship, and has been a contestant on 'Sale of the Century' and 'Who Wants to be a Millionaire?'
